Product Information/Guarantee

Howdens sells paintable kitchens to trade professionals who, along with their customers are able to choose the colour and finish of their kitchen. Our doors are supplied ready to be painted, and we recommend a solvent based paint for the best quality and durable finish. Although Howdens can provide recommendations to our trade professional customers on how best to finish these, we do not accept any responsibility for painting or final finish, which resides solely with your chosen trade professional. Our 25-year joinery cabinet guarantee and 5-year kitchen frontals guarantee (see www.howdens.com/kitchen-collection/cabinet-features/25-year-cabinet-guarantee/for further details) apply to our paintable kitchens but do not apply to any problem occurring as a result of or relating to the painting/finish.
